Park Bridge and Daisy Nook Trail

Bridge over River Medlock

⑫ Turn right and follow the towpath all the way to the bridge under the A627 Oldham/Ashton Road.

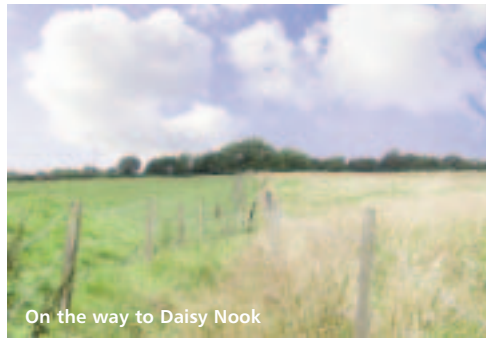

⑬ Go under the road through the subway (horse track and footpath run side by side) and follow the path for 500 metres to Park Bridge Road at Fennyfield Bridge.

Walk summary:
A walk linking a fascinating early industrial settlement with an attractive country park based on a former canals network. Varied landscape and much of wildlife interest.

Park Bridge woodlands

The Walk

- ① Go up the road from the Heritage Centre, curving right and continuing to the T-junction in 250 metres.
- ② Turn right downhill (Mill Brow) and left into the small car park at the bottom at the beginning of Rocher Vale.
- ③ Go through the car park with the river on your right, cross the grass and then up the steps to a bridge over the Medlock.
- ④ Turn right and follow the wide track (a former railway line) rising gradually to Alt Hill Road.
- ⑤ Cross the road and follow the former railway line for 3/4 mile, crossing Alt Hill Lane along the way.
- ⑥ The track enters woodland and crosses the deep Holden Clough on a high embankment. Turn right just before the houses, through a gate and past the pylon.

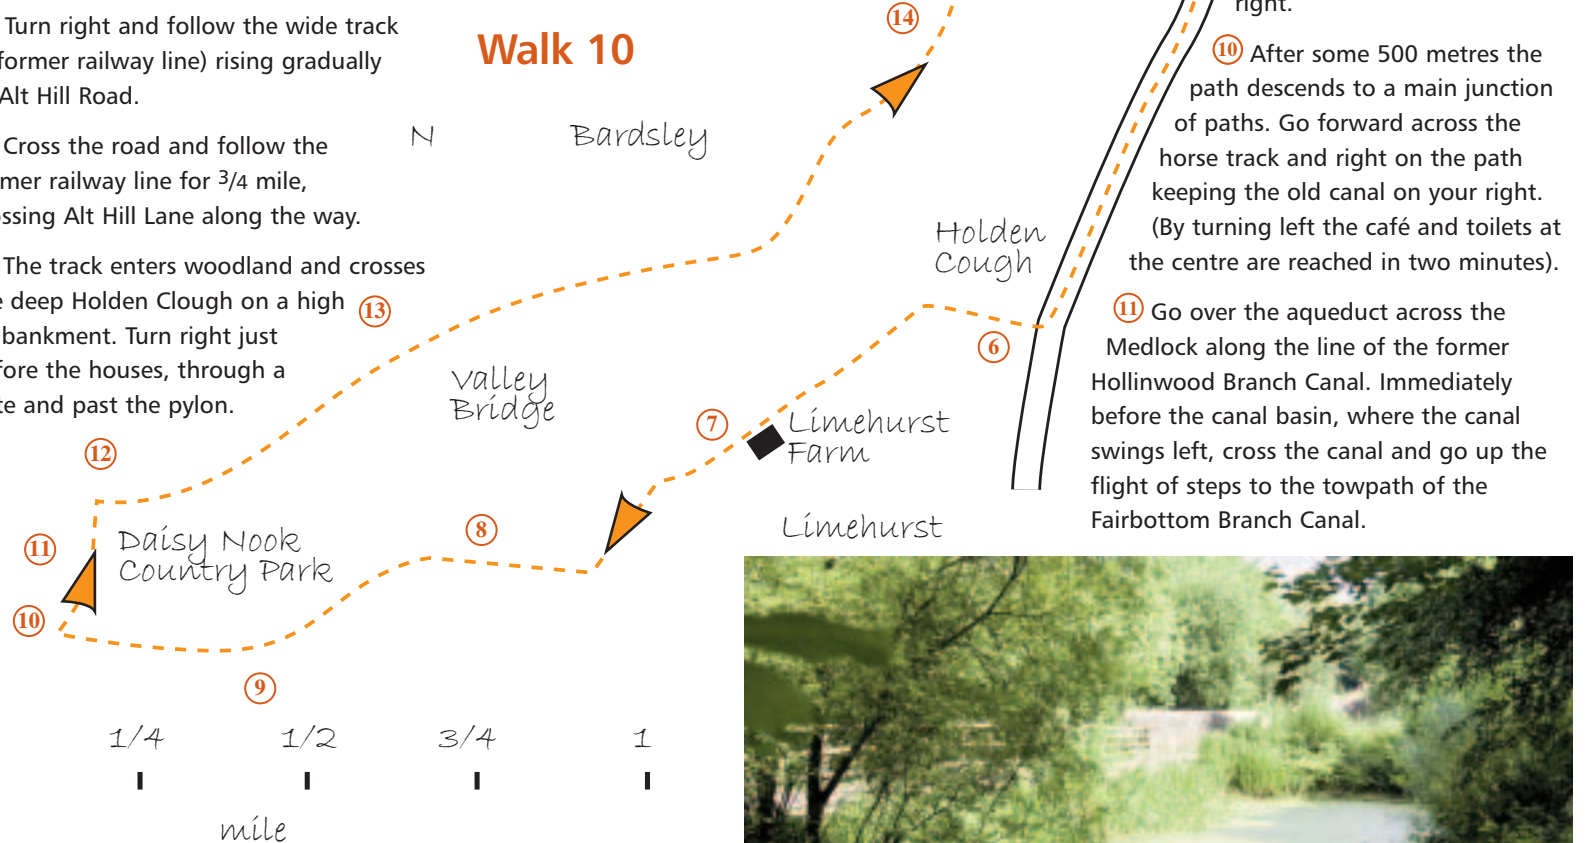

Daisy Nook Country Park

- ⑦ The path becomes a wide track, passes the buildings of Limehurst Farm, the route then continuing pleasantly along the tarmac farm access road all the way to the main A627 Oldham Road.
- ⑧ Cross this busy road with care, turn right and immediately left on an unmade driveway. In 80 metres there are open fields on the right. Continue along the track past open fields on the right, then turn right on a path running across the middle of a field.

Walk 10

- ⑨ At the far side (stile) cross the narrow unmade lane, continuing with the path along the top edge of Daisy Nook Country Park with fields left and Boodle Wood sloping away on the right.
- ⑩ After some 500 metres the path descends to a main junction of paths. Go forward across the horse track and right on the path keeping the old canal on your right. (By turning left the café and toilets at the centre are reached in two minutes).
- ⑪ Go over the aqueduct across the Medlock along the line of the former Hollinwood Branch Canal. Immediately before the canal basin, where the canal swings left, cross the canal and go up the flight of steps to the towpath of the Fairbottom Branch Canal.

- ⑧ Cross this busy road with care, turn right and immediately left on an unmade driveway. In 80 metres there
