WALK DESCRIPTION

Pennington Flash was formed over time from mining subsidence, but the pools and ponds in the wetland area were created specifically for the development of habitat. Following reclamation and improvements, Pennington Flash Country Park was officially opened in 1981. There are eight bird hides at Pennington Flash, with seven of them along this circuit of the wetlands. (The eighth is on the other side of the Flash near Bradshaw Leach Common.)

ACCESSIBILITY

This route, and the hides along it, are fully accessible to wheelchair users. Prams and cycles are also welcomed.

TOILETS

Toilet facilities are available at Pennington Flash Country Park. There is also an Information Centre.

START POINT

The route begins and ends at Pennington Flash Country Park. Car park available at Pennington Flash, St Helens Road, Leigh WN7 3PA (small charge).

BUS STOPS

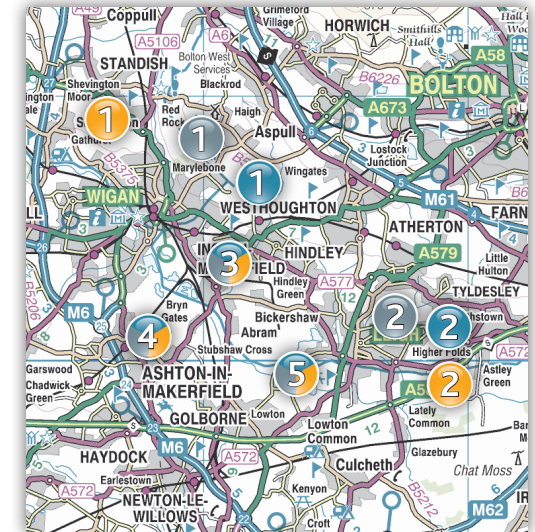

Bus services operate from Leigh bus station to St Helens Road stop.
